We are pleased to introduce Jay Shah, our instructor for Bridge Break programs at Trout Lodge! Jay is a Ruby Life Master who received his ACBL teacher's accreditation in 2010 and Directorship in 2011. Jay has owned and operated J's Bridge Pad since March of 2016, where he enjoys sharing his passion with students, who have earned numerous trophies and many points!

Here are some highlights of our new Bridge Break offerings that will occur along with the usual playtime opportunities.

On Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, as well as Wednesday and Thursday mornings, there will be ABCL Sanctioned Games, where you will be able to earn Master points. Additionally, there will be multiple social bridge games if there is interest.

On Wednesday afternoon, there will be a bridge workshop, as well as mni-lessons before each game. Some of the topics to be covered are conventions such as the 2/1 system, new minor forcing, Jacoby 2NT, slam bidding, bidding systems, practical aspects of hand evaluation, bidding evaluation & analysis, play and defense, effects of scoring on bidding and much more.
